

Homeschool Rules

We learn with our hands, hearts, and minds.

We appreciate and welcome imagination and creativity.

We are grateful for one another and our education.

We listen carefully and follow directions.

We are patient and kind.

We help one another whenever possible.

We show one another respect.

We say please and thank you.

We keep our space clean and organized.

We try our best and have fun while we learn.